

My Christmas of 2006 was one of my best Christmas's I had ever had. When I was sitting in a circle waiting to open our gifts. I noticed that the staff and other people were in the room watching us, so we can get ready to open our gifts. I smiled because what p.a. has done for me. Just seeing people laugh and smile was a good thing. I knew that this was the greatest Christmas that I will never forget. I knew that people cared about me.
